

here's to the

CRAIC 'n' CEOL

An immersive Belfast pub experience

Here's to the Craic 'n' Ceol immerses the audience in a true Belfast pub experience.

This spectacle is packed with music, song and dance, embodied in the spirit of the past but with the added ingredient of electric tempos; producing an exhilarating atmosphere that is very much felt in the present.

Musicians will encourage attendees to actively participate, maximising the authenticity of the display. As the show ends, attendees will be leave with a feeling of euphoria which promises to be the highlight of their trip.

As one previous promoter described,
"The craic was contagious".

here's to the
CRAIC 'n' CEOL

What's included?

- 3-hour authentic Belfast pub experience in The Dark Horse hosted by musicians from Pure Blarney and award-winning dancers from Irish Entertainment Group.
- Located in Belfast's famous Cathedral Quarter, attendees will receive exclusive access to one of the city's "must see" attractions that celebrates the surrounding history and character, Commercial Courtyard.
- A complimentary photograph opportunity captured by a local photographer, available to access and download afterwards.
- A locally produced light meal.

To request prices and further information, please get in touch via bookings@pureblarney.com / www.pureblarney.com.

Here's to the Craic

